an excursion to Charleston in May.

Don't neglect to register. The books will be open in the city five weeks longer.

Pickens Sentinel: "The Texas of Anderson County is Brushy Creek Township."

Anderson is no boom, but she is steadily growing in everything that goes to make up a progressive city.

If you want to vote in future elections, don't neglect to register. Your old registration certificate is no good now.

Old Winter dies hard but his spinal column is weakening. We are not how soon the final collapse takes place.

Toccoa (Ga.) News: "Miss Mary Simpson left last week for an extended visit to friends and relatives in Anderson, S. C."

Mrs. B. Bolla Allen and daughter, of Lowndesville, spent a few days in the city visiting relatives last week.

B. O. Evans & Co. have a new advertisement on the first page of the Intelligencer.
It might do you good to read it carefully.

The notes and accounts of The Means Co. have been placed in the hands of F. M.
Marple, Esq., for collection. See advertising.

Mr. W. W. Gilchrist, ex-Mayor of Greenville, committed suicide in his store in that city early yesterday by shooting himself in the head.

We are requested to announce that the annual picnic of the Epworth Society will be on Friday, May 1st. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The News says Mr. and Mrs. G. W.
McGee, of Belton, are spending a few days in Charleston visiting their daughter, Mrs.
C. S. McCullough.

Elberton (Ga.) Tribune: "Miss Orpha Harris, a pretty young lady of Pendleton, S. C., is visiting Miss Laura and Rosa Hodges, of this city."

In their new advertisement this week Brown & Vandoren call special attention to the celebrated brands of flour they handle. Read what they say.

The Sullivan Hardware Co. has the agency of the Crescent Bicycles, which is one of the best on the market. Read their advertisement and give them a call.

The fruit crop has had several close calls recently, but it is still safe. Our old weather prophet says it will not be safe until after the full moon in April.

On the first page of the Intelligencer this week we publish a list of all the Confederate Veterans whose names could be secured who attended the meeting here Saturday.

Hall & Milford are still offering bargains in clothing, hats, etc., to the customers.
This week they call special attention to their stock of boys' clothing. Read what they say.

Rev. John O. Willson, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, spent a short while in Anderson last Friday and honored the Intelligencer's sanctum with a brief call.

If you go to Charleston next week over the Southern Road call for your ticket via the Atlantic Coast Line from Columbia to Charleston. You will find this the most delightful route.

Do you wear shoes? Of course you do.
Then read what C. F. Jones & Co. have to say about their immense stock this week.
They have shoes for old and young, big or little, male or female.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor convenes in Columbia to-day. Mr. R. E.
Belcher is representing the Anderson Lodge, and Mr. J. B. Lewis is in attendance as an officer of the Grand Lodge.

The managers of the election for the Constitutional Convention can get their way by calling in person or need written order to J. J. Gilmer, or his son, Swain Gilmer, at Fowler's stable.

Mr. W. R. McAdams, accompanied by two of his daughters, of the Anteville section, was in the city last Saturday, and gave us a call. He says the farmers are well up with their work in his section.

Pelzer has been made a Presidential postoffice, and President Cleveland has appointed Mr. L. P. Smith postmaster. Mr. Pelzer has been filling the office for some time, and we congratulate him on his promotion.

Mr. Toney H. Dmy, of Piedmont, after an absence of twenty-five years, left this week for his native country, Germany, to spend a few weeks with his parents. We join his friends in wishing him a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crookshanks, of Greenville, are visiting the home of Hon.
B. F. Crayton, near this city. The former is quite sick, and his many friends will join us in wishing him a speedy recupera-tion.

J. A. McCullough, Esq., accompanied by his wife and children, of Greenville, are in the city visiting the family of his kin-man, Mr. H. G. Johnson. Mr. McCullough is one of Greenville's most popular and successful young lawyers, and has many friends in Anderson who are always delighted to meet him.

Ladies, your attention is called to the Ladies' Bazaar for the next thirty days.
Miss Lizzie Williams has put the knife in her silks, velvets, ribbons and lace--all going at 10 per cent below cost. She boasts of the largest and handsomest assortment in the city. To be convinced call and get prices and see the goods.

Chairman McGill has issued a call for the reorganization of the Democratic Club of the County on Saturday, May 2nd, to elect delegates to the County Convention, which meets the Monday following. Every man who is a true Democrat and proposes to stand by the nominees of the party from Columbia to president, should attend his Club meeting.

Pickens Sentinel: "Catachee" is the name of the new postoffice established at the site of The Norris Cotton Mill. That was the name of an Indian maid that accomplished the great run from Mile Creek to Ninety Six to inform the white people at the latter place of the murderous intentions of her tribe. She named the stream in passing."

McCully & Cathcart's new advertisement last week has no doubt attracted your attention, and you should remember that their grand opening continues throughout this month. They carry a stock of general merchandise, but just now are making a specialty of ladies' goods, which they are offering at bargain prices. We advise you to give them a call.

J. L. Haynie, wife and daughter, of Greenville, were in the city on Saturday last, and Mr. Haynie gave the Intelligencer a call. Mr. Haynie and daughters are proprietors of the Greenville Music House and do a large business in this and adjacent counties. They sell Mason & Hamlin organs and pianos, and have been very successful in their business.

Brown, Osborne & Co. have a word expressly for the men in this issue, and if you have anything to buy in the way of clothing, shirts, collars, cuffs, handkerchiefs, or anything in the way of general furnishings and shoes, you would do well to see them. They carry one of the largest lines of shoes carried by any one firm in upper Carolina, and are in position to sell shoes cheap.

Mr. Kedron Heller, a tenant on the farm of Dr. S. R. Heller, in the Broyles section, lost his dwelling house and contents by fire last Wednesday morning. He had laid in a year's supply of provisions, and this, with some fifty bushels of corn in an out-house, was consumed. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Heller, who is a worthy and industrious young man.

An entertainment consisting of chaises, tableaux, &c., will be given in the Academy at Greenville, Friday night, May 1st, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church.
An admission fee of 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, will be charged.
The worthiness of the cause and the stage talent of the ladies and gentlemen furnishing the entertainment, should ensure a full house.

Mr. Geo. A. Lafford, the genial representative of H. E. Bucken & Co., proprietors of the now famous Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters, and Bucken's Kidney Pills, which are sold in this city by Hill Bros., paid his annual visit to Anderson last Saturday and gave the Intelligencer an appreciation of the work. The above named remedies are very popular in Anderson, and will do what is claimed for them.

Married, on Sunday, April 12, 1896, in good form, by Rev. R. C. Lafford, Rev. C. B.
Burns, of Cheraw, S. C., and Miss Pearl Sadler, daughter of Mr. D. F. Sadler, of Anderson County. Mr. Burns is a native member of the South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South. He is fortunate in his selection of a bride, who is one of Anderson County's most excellent young ladies.

At the annual meeting of the congregation of Grace Church last Wednesday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: Wardens, E. A.
Bell and C. W. Webb; Vestry, M. L.
Bonham, E. W. Taylor, Mr. M. R. F. G.
Brown, R. C. Webb, M. P. Gamble and E. Belcher; Delegates to Council, M. L.
Bonham, R. F. Gamble and E. A. Bell; Treasurer, E. G. Brown.

The South Carolina Confederate Veterans' Reunion takes place in Charleston next week, and all the railroads in the State have granted a rate of one cent a mile for the occasion. The rate over the Southern from Anderson is $4.85. Tickets will be on sale from the 21st to the 23rd inclusive, good to return on or before 27th inst.
This should induce a large crowd to visit Charleston on this occasion.

The Southern Railway has issued a neat and attractive circular giving its rates and times for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which occurs on June 30th to July 2nd. The circular is accompanied with cuts of the Confederate monuments in the capitol of the Confederacy and with a Confederate flag. Tickets will be sold in this State at one cent per mile each way on June 27, 28 and 29, with July 6th as the final limit for return. No stop overs will be allowed. The rate from Anderson is $5.50.

The Melton faction of the Republican party in this County held its County Convention in the Court House last Saturday, and was presided over by W. W. Russell, the only white man who participated in the convention. There was a very large crowd present, and it was very evident that the Melton faction has a big majority in this County. Delegates were elected to the State and Congressional Conventions.
The meeting was addressed by George Washington Murray, the negro Congressman from the First District of this State, who has just won his seat in Congress in the contest with Congressman Elliott.

Augusta will celebrate Memorial Day on Monday, 27th inst., and is arranging to have a big military display, addresses from some of the heroes of the "Lost Cause," baseball, etc. The P. & W.
C. R. R. will run a special train from Anderson to Augusta on or before 27th inst., and the Ladies' Memorial Association of Anderson, 15 per cent on all the tickets sold between this place and McMullen.

The train will leave Anderson at 7 A. M., and arrive in Augusta at 11 o'clock. Returning, the train will leave Augusta at 8 o'clock, and arrive in Anderson at 11 A. M.
The fare for the round trip will be $1.50.
Further particulars will be given next week.

The Marion (Ala.) Standard of the 9th inst. says: "Last Saturday night Rev.
Robert G. Zwick, pastor of the Baptist Church, was pleasantly surprised by a visit from the young ladies and some of the teachers of the Judson school, who came to the church for the purpose of decorating the pastor's home for Easter. After making the home beautiful with the lovely flowers, the young ladies, who were decorating the pastor in honor of the brevity of the visit. It was not long before it was evident that the visit had another purpose as it was found that many volumes of well selected books for the pastor and his wife were left upon the chairs and the floor. It was a handsome Easter present most beautifully presented and we suppose this accounts for the unusually happy expression upon Mr. Zwick's face for the past few days." Mr.
Patrick is a son of Col. John B. Patrick, of this city, and from the above paragraph it is evident that he is very popular with his congregation in his adopted home.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, the Birthday Party given by the ladies of the Episcopal Church last Thursday evening was a most delightful occasion and a great success. The walls were decorated with the hall were gracefully garnished with evergreens and flowers, which with the swoon draperies of lace curtains and fish-netting, made a very attractive and affective decoration. Handmade palms, ferns and other plants adorned the hall, and were placed in tasteful groups here and there. A "Postoffice" "Candy Booth" a "Picture Gallery" and a "Refreshment Table" where cups of delicious tea were served (the cups to be retained by the purchasers as souvenirs), all presided over by fair ladies, were some of the attractive features. One of the most novel things was a large "Jack Horner Pie," where not only the good but also the bad (if there are any) might pull out, not only a plum, but many nice and useful presents, hidden in this huge brown temporary looking pie.
The Anderson Orchestra discoursed sweet music throughout the evening, while fair young maidens dispensed delicious refreshments to the crowd and brought back the little sacks of pennies for years they were old. Altogether the ladies have given reason to congratulate themselves upon the success of the occasion, their proceeds, clear of expenses, being $72.85.

There was an enjoyable concert rendered at the Williamson Female College on Thursday, April 10th, by the Williamson Chorus Club, assisted by Miss Christine von Borstel and Mr. J. E. von Hessein. of Anderson, and Mr. T. V. Dlam, of New York, to a thoroughly appreciative and enthusiastically music loving audience.
Miss von Borstel's artistic rendition of a favorite Aria from "Carmen" and several other choice selections were charming and added new laurels to her already well established fame as a soprano singer. Mr.

Bolin is possessed of a fine and well cultured baritone voice and the continued applause and repeated encores, which his sister, Miss Edith Mathews, was well earned.
The piano duet by Miss Kathleen Lander and Miss Matice also deserves special notice.
The Chorus, consisting of thirty ladies and gentlemen, residents of the model town of Williamston, sang a number of choice selections, under the direction of Miss Edith Mathews, upon whose skill and management the admirable rendition of their work greatly reflected. The stage in the Chapel was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns and altogether the occasion was one which will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who had the good fortune to be present. The receipts, which were donated to the library fund of the Williamston College, which is in a most flourishing condition, under the able management of Rev. D. S. Lander and his efficient corps of assistants.

Confederate Relics.

Mr. Edmon: I have been appointed to collect Confederate relics for the South Carolina room of the Confederate Museum at Richmond. This room is rather bare now, and it is very much desired that it be filled before the great reunion of Veterans, in June, at Richmond. Any person who has any relic of the war which he or she is willing to contribute to this worthy object can send or deliver it to me, or to their grand opening continues throughout this month. They carry a stock of general merchandise, but just now are making a specialty of ladies' goods, which they are
to give them a call.

Mrs. M. L. Bonham.

Mosley News.

Capt. J. T. Barnes and B. C. Kay went to the quarterly conference, which was held with Ebenezer Church last Saturday and Sunday.

J. E. McAdams, of Alice, was through here recently looking up delinquents.
G. F. Burdette, of Ivy, has been calling all about here and his old friends and fitting them up with speer.

Miss Della Pruitt returned last week, having spent several days with friends at Anderson.

Misses Ella McAdams and Onie Martin spent a day and night in the city recently.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Burdette, on the 6th inst., a girl.

some 2 story house at Tellico Bluff, near the mouth of Anderson, is pushing the work, and expects to have it completed by the middle of May.

The Gompers have gotten hold of a fresh dish now that just suits the palate of their mouth, for which they are indebted to Frank Gompers, of Clinton.

"They say" that small grain is looking very well.

Citizens of this place find various ways to spend the Sabbath, some go to church, some go visiting, others stay at home and the rest go to the river.

One of Lowndesville's dashing young men was up this way recently calling, and --they were seated at the piano, and the lady had played several pieces, he asked her if she knew that song which they called "all and ranson." Of course, she didn't know it and finally said she didn't repeat it verse, and he opened up with Somebody's tail and ranson, Somebody's big old ranson.

The remainder was drowned with the piano. Will just say that several of the Lowndesville boys were in the crowd here last Sunday. However, it is not necessary for them all to kick about the above item.

Several of our citizens worshipped at Good Hope last Sunday.

Rev. R. B. Hays will conduct a three day meeting at Tellico Bluff, embracing the 4th Sabbath in April.

W. T. McGee has purchased a new engine and is now better prepared to serve his many customers.

John H. Young passed down through here again last p. m. but soon returned.
Perhaps he was not admitted at the promise land.

The health of this place is very good.
